

We are against the CBA challenging the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. The reason we signed up for the no call list was to avoid unwanted phone calls. At present we still get some with no name, no number and I refuse to answer those calls. We will stop dealing with those who want this passed.